Teaching Foreign Languages B.A.A.

Major
Bachelor of Applied Arts
Education
College of Education and Human Service Professions

Learning a second language opens up a world of possibilities. Become fully immersed in a second language through coursework, volunteering and study abroad, then pass on your knowledge and enthusiasm to young people. Choose French, German or Spanish, and become eligible for licensure in K-12 World Languages and Cultures.

Why UMD

- Graduates will be eligible for licensure in World Languages & Culture Grades K -12.
- Field-based program with many weeks of opportunities to be immersed in multiple classrooms.
- Opportunity to study and/or student teach abroad (8 weeks in MN and 8 weeks in either Ireland or Slovenia).
- STEP candidates classroom hours:
  - Block 1 = 60 hours
  - Block 2 = 60 hours
  - Block 3, student teaching 16 weeks = 640 hrs.
  - Grand total of 760 hours in the classroom.

Acquired Skills

- Design and teach effective lessons.
- Create instruction opportunities that are adapted to students with diverse backgrounds and exceptionalities.
- Be engaged through active learning.

Career Possibilities

Entry level positions include elementary, middle or high school teacher, translator, interpreter. Advanced degree positions include Dean of Students, Principal, School Counselor, Superintendent.

Scholarships

Students in CEHSP are eligible to apply for more than 100 scholarships each academic year typically totaling $120,000 annually. For more information on scholarship opportunities, visit our scholarship webpage (https://z.umn.edu/scholarshipcehsp).

UMD's Education Department has over 25 scholarships ranging from $1,000 to $10,000. Scholarships vary in criteria and some are specifically for subject areas or students entering student teaching in the US or starting their student teaching abroad.

Student Clubs

- Education MN Student Association (EMSA)
- Club de Francais (French)
- Der Deutsche Kultur Klub (German)
- Spanish Club

Faculty Highlights

Faculty have won campus & college awards for outstanding teaching, research, advising and service.
They are dedicated teachers, academic advisors, scholarly researchers and curriculum designers.

Graduate Report

Recent UMD Graduates Job Placement Data & Employers

Here's a sampling of positions Teaching Foreign Languages grads have attained six months to one year after graduation.

- German & Social Studies Teacher - Phillips School District, Phillips, WI
- Preschool Teacher - The Goddard School, Plymouth, MN
- High School Spanish Teacher - Crown Point Academy Public Charter School, Westminster, CO
- STINTer, Intern - Campus Crusade for Christ, Cru, Trujillo Province, Peru

For more data see the Teaching Foreign Languages Graduate Follow-Up Report. For ideas about Teaching Foreign Languages and other majors visit Career & Internship Services.

[1] mailto:educ@d.umn.edu