Why UMD

The undergraduate minor in Psychology provides students with a basic survey of psychological theories and a required emphasis on life span developmental processes. Students seeking careers in human service fields, criminal justice, organizational development, health care, and education are encouraged to pursue this minor.

Sample Courses:
- General Psychology
- Abnormal Psychology
- Applied Behavior Analysis and Behavior Change

Links
[1] mailto:umdpsy@d.umn.edu