The Master of Tribal Administration and Governance (MTAG) is an applied development degree for current or future tribal administrators, council members, and tribal leaders. MTAG courses are designed to develop the knowledge and skills you need to work as an administrator in a tribal government.

Why UMD

The entire program is designed to serve working adults offering weekend and online classes. Weekend sessions meet five times per semester on Friday evening and all day Saturday; students may attend in person or participate virtually for weekend sessions.

Acquired Skills

- Explain and analyze the legal, cultural, and political contours of tribal sovereignty.
- Formulate and apply effective approaches to strategic, operational, human resource, project, and fiscal management in tribal governance contexts.
- Demonstrate effective applied research and methodological skills regarding tribal sovereignty, governance management, and leadership.
- Identify, analyze, and apply the leadership qualities required of tribal administrators.
- Demonstrate the globally contextualized intercultural competencies inherently necessary for effective tribal administration and governance.

Career Possibilities

To find out what our recent graduates are doing, see the Career and Internship Services Report: Follow-up of Majors.

Requirements

In addition to the general application instructions provided by the Graduate School, visit the MTAG program page for specific application instructions and deadlines related to the program. Also visit the catalog requirements page linked above for additional information.

- Application Deadline for Fall Semester: August 15th compass.

umdmtag@d.umn.edu [1]

Cina Hall 106
1123 University Drive
Duluth, MN 55812

(218) 726-7332

Links
[1] mailto:umdmtag@d.umn.edu