There's a Labovitz MBA program for you. An MBA at Labovitz is perfect for recent graduates, international students, and working professionals.

The Labovitz MBA offers five AACSB-accredited program options:

- Accelerated 12-month MBA in Duluth
- 4+1 Integrated MBA in Duluth
- Part-time MBA in Duluth
- PharmD/MBA Dual Career Option in Duluth
- Executive-format MBA in Rochester

All LSBE MBA programs provide a face-to-face classroom experience with PhD-qualified faculty.

Why UMD

The Labovitz MBA offers five AACSB-accredited program options, all providing a face-to-face classroom experience with PhD-qualified faculty, culminating in a globally recognized degree from the University of Minnesota Graduate School.

Acquired Skills

- Communicate effectively in business contexts.
- Diagnose and evaluate business problems accurately to make effective managerial decisions.
- Integrate ethical and global perspectives in managerial decisions.
- Demonstrate an advanced level of business acumen.
- Demonstrate knowledge and skills to be effective leaders.

Career Possibilities

To find out what our recent graduates are doing, see the Career and Internship Services Report: Follow-up of Majors

Scholarships

- Tom and Mary Duff Graduate Tuition Fellowship - $1,500 for the academic year
- Fred C. and Mary H. Lewis UMD MBA Scholarship - $9,000
- Maki Graduate Tuition Fellowships - $6,000
- LSBE Graduate Student Tuition Fellowships - $1,000-$2,000

Faculty Highlights

PhD-Qualified Faculty. The majority of our faculty are PhDs with an active research agenda in the area that they teach. They know the theory, and are experts at communicating those theories in ways you can understand and apply in your career.

Requirements

In addition to the general application instructions provided by the Graduate School, visit the Business Administration program page for specific application instructions and deadlines related to the program. Also visit the catalog requirements page linked above for