Social workers empower individuals and families to resolve problems, and work to promote social justice in our communities. Our program prepares students for social work practice in a wide range of settings; including, child welfare, health care, residential care, mental health, and nonprofit advocacy organizations. We offer specialized coursework in the field of child welfare and working with American Indian communities. Our internship program in community agencies provides students with hands-on experience. The UMD BSW Program is accredited by the Council of Social Work Education (CSWE).
