The Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.) program is a professional program that prepares students for licensure and entry into generalist social work practice in a variety of human service settings. Bachelor's level social workers empower individuals, families, small groups, organizations, and communities to effectively resolve problems and function optimally within their environment. Graduates are prepared to work as professional social workers in: advocacy, crisis counseling, substance abuse/mental health settings, child welfare, hospitals, youth serving organizations, and schools. With a focus on cultural competence, social justice and working with American Indian communities, the UMD Social Work Program uniquely prepares you to promote human well-being and work effectively within the diverse world in which we live. The UMD B.S.W. Program is fully accredited by the Council of Social Work Education (CSWE).
