Special Education Minor

Why UMD

Want to make a difference in the lives of children with disabilities? You can choose to complete the special education minor to supplement other coursework. The coursework provides the foundations, theories, characteristics, and legal issues related to special education. If you complete this degree, you may apply it to special education licensure.

Sample Courses:

- Assessment for Children and Youth with Disabilities
- Behavior Management Principles and Practices
- Parent and Professional Communication & Collaboration

Links
[1] mailto:educ@d.umn.edu